

at the University of Chicago and McGill University, before spreading knowledge as a professor at Johns Hopkins University, Harvard University, and University College London. As a trusted expert on higher education and mental health, he has advised stakeholders in both the public and private sectors throughout his career. His influence can be felt in academia and healthcare across this country and throughout Canada.

President Ono has deep experience working in the higher education sector. Whether serving as chair of the U15 Group of Canadian Research Universities, on the board of directors of the Universities Canada and the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities, or as past chair of Research Universities of British Columbia, he has constantly sought opportunities to educate and mentor a new generation of aspiring researchers, scientists, and doctors.

Within his first few days at The University of Michigan, President Ono has made a commitment to being available and meeting with students, faculty, and campus unions. President Ono wants to strengthen trust in the University with an emphasis on ethics and transparency. Additionally, President Ono has set out to improve the mental health programs on campus. In honest conversations and TED Talks, President Ono has been open about his mental health experiences and how his personal story guides his commitment to building access to mental health care. With his extensive experience and a strong commitment to students, President Ono will help the University of Michigan continue on the bright path ahead.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring the University of Michigan's newest President Santa J. Ono. I join with his family, friends, and colleagues in extending my best wishes to him for the future.

HONORING THE SERVICE AND COMMITMENT OF BARBARA LINCOLN

HON. GUS M. BILIRAKIS

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 1, 2023

Mr. BILIRAKIS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to celebrate the service and commitment of Barbara Lincoln. Her dedication to our country throughout her lifetime demonstrates the true American spirit of sacrifice for the greater good.

Following the attack on Pearl Harbor, Mrs. Barbara Lincoln joined the United States Cadet Nurse Corps. She trained at the Lenox Hill Hospital for two and a half years, graduating in March 1947 as a registered nurse. Mrs. Lincoln then went on to work in several New York hospitals during the rise of polio. Despite already having a registered nurse's license, Barbara Lincoln continued her education, gaining a bachelor's degree in human health services and certifications to become a school nurse, teacher, and nurse practitioner.

In 1949, Barbara Lincoln married Donald Pantke and had three children. Unfortunately, her husband Donald passed away when she was 35, leaving her a single mother. Still, she persevered to provide for her family. In 1967, she eventually remarried to Judson Lincoln, a major in the Air Force. Their blended family had 7 children, larger than the Brady Bunch.

Today, Mrs. Barbara Lincoln is an active member of First Christian Church in Inverness, as well as a retired military group. She still finds time to be active and give back to her community through volunteering at Precious Paws Rescue. Mrs. Lincoln is also a loving grandmother to 15 grandchildren and great-grandmother to 18 great-grandchildren. Mrs. Barbara Lincoln's legacy truly represents the American dream through her marvelous life full of patriotism, courage, and determination.

HONORING MIKE GONZALEZ

HON. J. LUIS CORREA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 1, 2023

Mr. CORREA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the achievements of Mr. Mike Gonzalez.

Mr. Gonzalez is originally from Guadalajara, Jalisco, and immigrated to the United States of America at age 17. After immigrating to the U.S., he began his new life by obtaining a license from the State of California to start his career as a private investigator and bodyguard, eventually starting his own company.

A resident of Santa Ana, California, since 1987, he now owns several businesses, including Santa Ana Security Services, Inc., and employs 250 men and women. Mr. Gonzalez is a community leader and activist in Santa Ana, where he organizes the annual May Day March for immigrant rights, workers' rights, and human rights for all. He also coordinated the historic "2006 March" to protest a law that sought to criminalize those who help undocumented immigrants in the United States.

Mr. Gonzalez is an active member in the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC), and he serves as the organization's vice president of Immigration Reform. In this role, he participates in historic campaigns such as, but not limited to, the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA), the 2018 VOICES Act, and the 2019 "Keep California Families Together" law.

He was a counselor to the previous four Presidents of Mexico electors at the Consulate of Mexico. In 1995, he actively participated in campaigns that led to an amendment to the Mexican Constitution. In the period of 2005 through 2008, he was a member of the Advisory Council of the Institute of Mexicans Abroad (CC-IME). From 2012 through 2015, he was an inventor and coordinator of the Commission of Art, Culture, and Mexican Traditions Abroad.

Mr. Gonzalez is a practicing Catholic and gives thanks to God for his many blessings. He is a man who has made many positive contributions to his community.

I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring and celebrating the exceptional achievements and career of Mr. Mike Gonzalez.

RECOGNIZING MICHAEL N. COPPOLA

HON. BRIAN HIGGINS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 1, 2023

Mr. HIGGINS of New York. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the late Michael N.

Coppola. He was an outstanding man of character who touched the lives of countless people and contributed to the betterment of the Buffalo community.

He was born at Millard Fillmore Hospital in Buffalo, New York on August 25, 1948. He was the oldest of 10 children of Angela Coppola and Dr. Joseph R. Coppola. He attended Christ the King School in Snyder, New York, moving on to Canisius for high school. He continued to attend Canisius through college, where he earned a degree in Business Administration and Management. He was honored as an Outstanding Graduate by Canisius College in 2016.

At the age of 16, Michael Coppola began working as a stock boy for Tops Markets. Over the next 33 years, he climbed the ranks within the company, eventually earned the title of Executive Vice President of Marketing. He was considered an innovator in the supermarket industry, even opening up the first Tops International Store in order to meet the demands of the diverse cultures living within the City of Buffalo and the metropolitan area.

Michael Coppola was regarded as a dear friend, mentor, teacher, and inspiration both within and outside of the Tops company. It gave him great joy to guide and mentor others throughout his life and career; his lifelong motto was "Choose Love." Before his passing, he was able to organize a reunion with his former Tops colleagues, further strengthening his local community. His leadership and dedication to God, family, and community will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved him.

Michael Coppola passed into the arms of the Lord on August 21, 2022. On the day of Michael Coppola's funeral, Byron W. Brown, Mayor of the City of Buffalo, proclaimed October 29, 2022, as "Michael N. Coppola Day" in the City of Buffalo and joined his family and friends in celebration of his life and selfless legacy.

Michael Coppola leaves behind to cherish his children Jennifer, Jill, Michelle, the late Joseph, and Jeffrey; his grandchildren the late Angelina, Serena and Arabella, Ryan and Miranda, Zach, Hailee and Addison; his siblings Leonard, Joe, Jack, the late Mary, Peter, Paul, Robert, Richard, and Donna—and a host of other family members and loving friends.

REDUCE EXACERBATED INFLATION NEGATIVELY IMPACTING THE NATION ACT

SPEECH OF

HON. BETTY MCCOLLUM

OF MINNESOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 28, 2023

The House in Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union had under consideration the bill (H.R. 347) to require the Executive Office of the President to provide an inflation estimate with respect to Executive orders with a significant effect on the annual gross budget, and for other purposes:

Ms. McCOLLUM. Madam Chair, I rise in opposition to H.R. 347, the REIN In Act.

House Republicans are claiming this bill will require the administration to publish the inflationary impact of executive actions before enacting them, but if Republicans had taken the
